In the News

The Silver Screen Can Wait

CHARLOTTE - 13-year old black belt Brandon Nosworthy, of Paradise, Calif. passed up an opportunity to be in a movie but opted instead to come to Charlotte and compete in the Karate events of the AAU Junior Olympic Games.

Nosworthy was spotted in a local mall in California and asked if he would like to appear in a movie being shot in Chico, Ca. Nosworthy, who won a gold medal at last year's Games, proved his dedication by choosing his sport over the silver screen.

The move proved golden, as Nosworthy took the gold again in the 13-14 Kobudo weapons matches.
