Boys Get Kick Over Showdown

Friend Tops Friend for Sparring Title

CHARLOTTE - Glen Brown and Keith Lawyer thought they had settled their little feud in New York, but it followed them to North Carolina - to the AAU Junior Olympic Games Boys 7-8 Black Belt Taekwondo Point Sparring Championship.

The two boys, from Saratoga, NY area, met in the regional championship this summer. Glenn won, but both qualified for the Charlotte trip.

At the championships round, they battled their way to past a series of opponents, and when it was time for the finals, well, "It was the two of us - again," Glenn said with a smile.

And, as was the case in the regionals, Glenn prevailed with a narrow victory, landing more punches and kicks than his foe.

"Well were not really enemies," said Glenn, 8, " In fact, we're friends. But we always seem to compete up against one another."

Maybe they will meet again at next year's AAU Junior Olympic Games in Hampton Roads, Virginia.

Keith Lawyer has vowed that he won't get beat again! See you next year.
