Detroit's Cobo Center was filled with up-stacking and down-stacking as Day One of the AAU Junior Olympic Games Sport Stacking Championships kicked off with a flair.

With team names like the Red Hot Stackers, Speed Squared, White Hot Cups and Stack to the Future, 230 competitors from around the world gathered for sport stacking's second appearance as an official sport of the AAU Junior Olympic Games.

Stackers traveled from 29 states in the U.S., four Canadian provinces, Japan, Germany and Hong Kong to attend this summer's event.

The first day of competition included preliminary rounds in the Individual Timed Events, Doubles and Timed 3-6-3 Relay followed by Head-to-Head Relays in the 3-6-3 and Cycle. Those who qualified for Finals will return on Sunday to compete for top spots on the podium and to see their names in the record books.

Advancing to the semifinals in the second annual Speed Stacks International Challenge are teams from Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, and Illinois. Final rounds of this Head-to-Head Cycle Relay will take place on Saturday during the Stack of Champions.

Sport stacking is joined by 18 other sports in this year's Junior Olympic Games, which will draw more than 15,000 athletes to the Motor City through August 3rd.
